FOR RELEASE BEFORE MAY 1, 2015

The National Association of Milk Bottle Collectors (NAMBC) will hold its 35th Annual Convention at The Holiday Inn in Grantville (Hershey) PA at the junctions of Interstates 80 and 81 from May 28th to May 31, 2015.

Throughout the convention members will sell and trade milk bottles, caps and dairy related memorabilia. There will be seminars relating to milk bottles and dairy collectibles. On Friday night there will a banquet with a guest speaker. All convention attendees will receive a commemorative bottle. The convention will conclude with an auction of milk bottles, caps and a wide range of related dairy items on Saturday evening.

All attendees must register, beginning Thursday morning. A Registration fee is required of all attendees over the age of 10 years. On site registration is $10.00 for members (all three days), $12.00 for non-members (all three days) and $5.00 for one day only. The registration fee also includes participation at the auction. Pre-registration is highly recommended prior to May 15th.

To join NAMBC's nearly 700 members, yearly membership is $25.00 US, $27.00 Canadian (US currency) and $30.00 international (US currency- via Air Mail). This also includes a subscription to "THE MILK ROUTE" a monthly newsletter which is the official publication of NAMBC (with free advertising in the publication) and a directory of members.
