

TREAT YOUR TASTEBUDS, CHATTANOOGA STYLE

In the Scenic City, we know just how important great food is. From family dining to exciting nightlife, Chattanooga has it all. Here are a few of our favorites from nearly 100 downtown restaurants.

FINE DINING:

Enjoy the quality, ambiance and attention to detail graciously offered at St. John's Restaurant.

Set in the world's first Coca-Cola bottling plant, Easy Bistro offers classics as well as daily features all made with local ingredients.

Located in the historic Bluff View Art District, the Back Inn Café offers upscale global cuisine with an extensive wine list.

TerraMae Appalachian Bistro serves up delicious "home cooked" vegetables, seafood, and meats.

CASUAL DINING:

If you're a serious ribs lover, look no further than Sugar's Ribs for "fall-off-the-bone tender" meats.

For an all-American bar with a great atmosphere and delicious food, stop in at Clyde's on Main.

Contemporary comfort food, mixed drinks, and house desserts are the specialty of Chattanooga's Metropolitan diner, Blue Plate.

Swing by Community Pie for tasty Neapolitan pizza cooked in wood-fired ovens, craft beer and homemade gelato.

FAMILY DINING:

Check out the delicious street food, Tex-Mex restaurant, Taco Mamacita, featuring an eclectic menu where the taco is supreme.

Enjoy unlimited Italian food, beverages, and dessert while you solve a murder at Vaudeville Cafe Comedy Dinner Shows.

For all-American favorites and award-winning ales and lagers, Big River Grille & Brewing Works will be sure to get your mouth watering.

Located in the old Southern Railway Baggage Building, Urban Stack is a delicious, upscale burger and bourbon bar in the Southside.

GROUP DINING:

Experience a unique interpretation of rustic Italian using fresh local ingredients at Alleia.

Located at Warehouse Row, Public House takes the best seafood, steaks & produce to create a refined approach to Southern 'meat & three' menu.

Located in the heart of downtown, Hennen's serves up some of the best steaks in town in an upscale, innovative dining environment.

For the freshest seafood in town and also a wide variety of steaks, chicken, pastas, and sandwiches, visit the Bluewater Grille.

CULINARY TOURS:

Explore 7,500 sq. ft. of pure brewing goodness at the Chattanooga Brewing Company.

Tour the streets of Chattanooga on a 15-passenger pub-crawl bike with Pints & Pedals and the Chattanooga Brew Choo.

Tour the first and only urban winery in Chattanooga at DeBarge Winery.

Watch history in the making at Chattanooga Whiskey, the first legal whiskey distillery in Chattanooga in over 100 years.

AFTERHOURS:

With everything from corn hole to pool to giant jenga, Southside Social is an urban playground with three bars and a bowling alley.

Featuring a very hip, modern design and handcrafted interior, the Flying Squirrel serves up a wide selection of beer, cocktails, & food.

Located in a historic hotel building across from the Choo Choo, The Terminal pairs great food with their own beer brewed in-house

Enjoy the same great attention to detail and quality food as St. John's Restaurant in a more casual setting at the Meeting Place.
