

The Federation of Historical Bottle Collectors

2020 FOHBC Writer's Award Contest

Deadline: June 1, 2020

The FOHBC Writer's Award Contest is held annually to promote the research, education, and quality articles within Affiliated Member Club Newsletters and FOHBC publications like BOTTLES and EXTRAS. FOHBC members and members of FOHBC affiliated clubs are eligible to enter. Material entered must be original and must be published within the twelve months preceding the submission deadline date.

Entries may be made in any of the following three (3) categories:

- 1. Best Original Research / Information Article: This category includes research / information articles in such areas as glass houses, specific products, companies or manufacturers, druggists, saloons, liquor dealers, dairies, distilleries, breweries, and/or the people behind them.
- 2. Best Original True Story: This category includes stories about the personal experiences and acquaintances of collectors as they pursue their hobby. Possible topics include a memorable dig, antique bottle show and auction experiences, a lucky find, or an interview with an interesting person.
- 3. Best Original Fiction Story: Collectors are no strangers to fantasy. This category will allow those with dreams and visions to share them with fellow dreamers and collectors.

A panel of three (3) or more judges will determine the winning entry in each category.
