Snuffs (Dana Charlton-Zarro)

The elusive pink California-made demijohn with swirls , one of my favorites (Dale Santos)

A few OHIO Masonics that are often overlooked.
(Michael George)

Two of the nicest Carter's master inks I have ever seen.
Teal quart, green pint
(Michael Burgess)

A few spring greens. I am tired of winter.
(Frank Wicker)

Lacour's Sarsaparillere Bitters. First trademarked on January 26th, 1867. Earliest advertisement appeared in S. F. newspaper on May 8th, 1867. Received patent for bottle design on February 4th, 1868. A lighthouse is the logo. California manufactured product, the bottle, the cork, the label, the box, the bitters are all of San Francisco make. (Warren Friedrich)

(Mark Yates)

Sharing a half dozen of my favorite 6 loggers (Charles Norris)

Neat bottles

A few rare closure bottles. (David Tingen)

(Mike Newman)

My small Pittsburgh area druggist collection. Super hard to find. (Chip Cable)
